

2020/21 SOUTH AUSTRALIAN ARROW STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

As is traditionally the case, the South Australian Arrow Championship was sailed on three weekends spread across the sailing season. The Clubs sailed at were Adelaide in January, Victor Harbor in February and Normanville in March.

Craig Pearsons comfortably won the Championship, winning all five of the heats he competed in. Paul Fisher was second and Warwick Graham third. Brett Pearsons was only able to sail in two heats, narrowly losing to Craig in one and seeing his mast dramatically collapse at the hounds in the other.

We welcomed new skipper Leigh Richardson and returning skipper Scott Standish to the Class events. Leigh had the remarkable achievement of winning a heat at his first outing when he was the only skipper to sail the correct course!
